About Us

The Game Room is located on the second floor of the beautifully restored Chicago Athletic Association Hotel. Originally the billiards room of the private mens club, our Game Room is now open to all and operates as a full service bar and restaurant.

In order to restore the building, Hartshorne Plunkard Architecture and Roman and Williams worked together to preserve elements of the building's late 19th century architectural details while creating a contemporary atmosphere that pays homage to Henry Ives Cobb's original design.

Does the CAA logo on the wall behind the bocce court look familiar? The original black-and-red logo was modified to red, white and blue in 1916 as a patriotic response to American involvement in WWI. In 1937, longtime member William Wrigley appropriated the logo for his Chicago Cubs.
